

“A Little While,”
My Jesus Said

www.bachtochurch.org
This work may be freely reproduced.

"A Little While," My Jesus Said

8.7.8.7.8.8.7.

Über ein kleines

Nathanael Hahn, 2021

Andrew Richard, 2021

1. "A lit - tle while," my Je - sus said, "And
 2. A men, Lord Je - sus, come to me. This
 3. "This wick - ed world," my Je - sus said, "Be -
 4. A - men, Lord Je - sus, I have peace A -

I will take thee to me. As I for thee my world my heart dis - tress - es. I walk in my in - fore thy time did hate me. Yet with its wick - ed - midst my tri - bu - la - tions, And though the de - vil blood have shed, So do I love thee tru - ly. Yea, te - gri - ty, Yet hard - er down it press - es. But ness I sped God's pur - pose for thy safe - ty. I will not cease From ly - ing ac - cu - sa - tions, Yet

ev - 'ry tear that thou hast wept I have with - in my what of that? I have Thee still. I live with - in Thy took its e - vil in my hand; A - gainst my will could Thou dost rise for my de - fense. I wash my hands in bot - tle kept, And I am com - ing quick - ly."

 gra - cious will. Thou art my shield and ref - uge.
 no - thing stand. I work all things to bless thee."
 in - no - cence And go a - bout Thine al - tar.

5. "I am for thee," my Jesus said,
 "An Advocate beside thee.
 I am the Lifter of thy head
 And Guard when foes deride thee.
 Since I have named thee with my name,
 Thou never wilt be put to shame.
 I am thy Reputation."

6. Amen, Lord Jesus, Thou art all
 I need both now and ever.
 No mammon can my heart enthrall;
 Thou only art my treasure.
 The wealth of earth has now grown old.
 In heaven 'tis but trodden gold
 On which I'll walk beside Thee.

7. "Thou art my own," my Jesus said,
 "And as I live, so surely
 All mine is thine, so have no dread;
 Thy flesh will dwell securely.
 Thy daily bread I will provide,
 And even death cannot divide
 Thee from my loving kindness."

8. Amen, Lord Jesus, on Thy palms
 I know Thou hast engraved me.
 Forevermore I'll sing Thee psalms
 And tell how Thou hast saved me.
 In death Thou art my confidence,
 In life art my inheritance.
 In Thee my soul rejoices.