

17

In Your Sa - cra - ments and Word.
 Then in You I will con - fide.
 That with all our fall - en race

19

There He sends true con - so - la - tion,
 Since Your Word can - not de - ceive me,
 In our depth of deg - ra - da - tion

21

Giv - ing us the gift of faith
 My sal - va - tion is to me
 You had mer - cy so that we

23

That we fear not hell nor death.
 Safe and sure e - ter - nal - ly.
 Might be saved e - ter - nal - ly.

Oh, How Great Is Your Compassion

setting by J.S. Bach

Oh, How Great Is Your Compassion

Text: Ach, wie groß ist deine Gnade; Johann Olearius (1671); tr. August Crull (1882), alt.

Tune: Ach, was soll ich Sünder machen; Germany c. 1653

Setting: Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750); BWV 259

S.
A.

1. Oh, how great is Your com - pas - sion,
2. Your great love for this has striv - en

T.
B.

3

Faith - ful Fa - ther, God of grace,
That we may, from sin made free,

5

That with all our fall - en race
Live with you e - ter - nal - ly.

7

In our depth of de - gra - da - tion
Your dear Son Him - self has giv - en

9

You had mer - cy so that we
And ex - tends His gra - cious call,

11

Might be saved e - ter - nal - ly!
To His sup - per leads us all.

13

3. Firm - ly to our soul's sal - va - tion
4. Lord, Your mer - cy will not leave me;
5. I will praise Your great com - pas - sion,

15

Wit - ness - es Your Spir - it, Lord,
Ev - er will Your truth a - bide.
Faith - ful Fa - ther, God of grace,