Jesus, Lord of Day and Night

8.7.8.7.8.8. Jesu Christ, mein Abendherr

Anna Hahn, 2023

Nathanael Hahn, 2023

1. Je - sus, Lord of day and night, Thou Who call - est
2. As Thou cam'st to sin - ful man In the eve - ning
3. As Thou didst at day-light's end Show the wa - ters
4. As Thou didst in Ja - cob's flight Pledge that Thou wouldst all to be - ing, Word by Whom cre - at - ed light in the gar - den, When Thy judg - ment's curse be - gan, had a - bat - ed, And didst life and com - fort send ne'er for - sake him, Show - ing him Thy heav - en's height

First was ga - thered in - to eve - ning— Be my prayer, as Yet didst pro - mise grace and par - don— Je - sus, come and
By the dove Thy saints a - wait - ed— Lord, send com - fort Where his Seed at last would take him— Gate of Heav'n, as day is end - ing, In - cense un - to Thee as - cend - ing.

show my er - rors, Clothe my shame, and end my ter - rors.
by Thy Spir - it Till I shall Thy life in - her - it.
sleep comes o'er me, Ev - er set Thy - self be - fore me.

5. As Thou didst Thine Israel seal
On the eve of their salvation
By the blood and paschal meal,
Safe from death and condemnation—
Lamb of God, be my defender;
Let no harm my dwelling enter.

6. As from David's wicked foes
Ev'ry evening Thou didst shield him—
Though their lies would round him close,
Thy protection still concealed him—
Savior, when the Foe pursues me,
Never let his lies accuse me.

7. As upon that evening blest
When Thou borest our transgression,
Thou wast laid awhile to rest
Till the morn of resurrection—
Son of God, do not forsake me;
In the morning come and wake me.

8. Blessed Jesus, here abide,
For the hour of night is nearing!
Stay and never turn aside;
Haste the day of Thine appearing
When Thy light shall leave me never,
And I'll dwell with Thee forever!
